PCWHF Annual Conference

Registration:

This year's conference is now open for registration, we have limited capacity and have over 20 delegates registered already. The focus at the conference will be on 'Keeping Women's Healthcare on the agenda' and boasts an impressive line-up of key note speakers and a powerful agenda, which should prove both thought-provoking and beneficial for all those attending.

The conference will be held at The Cavendish Conference Centre, London on Thursday 10th October 2013.

To view the agenda and to book your tickets, please visit the conference website:

HRT: What you should know about the benefits and risks

http://www.womens-health-concern.org/help/factsheets/fs_hrtrisksbenefits.html

This factsheet, whilst aimed at patients, is also helpful reading for GPs and Practice Nurses.

This edition was published last month. It was prepared by David Sturdee and provides an exceptionally well-balanced view of the current situation.

Bayer Mirena Meetings - Message from Anne Connolly

Dear Colleagues,

The Primary Care Women's Health Forum are supporting a series of meetings that Bayer HealthCare are running during May this year. The programme is aimed at primary care physicians, who have an interest in Women's Health. The meeting will cover subjects such as heavy menstrual bleeding along with tips and advice for Mirena fitters.

There will be 19 meetings running across the country, which will take place during the evening. If you would like to see a copy of your local meeting agenda, or register for a meeting, please log on to www.mirena.co.uk for further details.

Many thanks,

Anne Connolly
